Section II. Legal Custody (Decision-Making)

A. Joint Legal Custody. Mother and Father shall have joint legal custody of their minor child(ren). "Joint legal custody" means that both parents have equal rights to participate in, contribute to, and have responsibility for the major life decisions concerning the child(ren) including matters of health and education. Neither parent's rights are superior to the other parent's rights, and they should cooperate to determine what is in their child(ren)'s best interests.

B. Sole Legal Custody. Joint legal custody is not in the child(ren)'s best interests. "Sole legal custody" means that the parent granted sole legal custody has the primary right to decide matters of health and education in the child(ren)'s best interests. The parent not granted sole legal custody may make emergency decisions affecting the child(ren)'s health or safety when the child(ren) are in that parent's physical care and control. The grant of sole legal custody to one parent does not deprive the other parent of access to information, including school and medical records, regarding the child(ren) unless the court specifically orders otherwise.

1. Sole legal custody is granted to  Mother  Father by Agreement of the parents.

2.  Restriction of Information Regarding the Child(ren) to Non Legal Custodian.

The Mother Father shall have no access to the child(ren)'s health, educational and other personal information because of the following specific reasons:

Section III. Parenting Time Schedule.

Section V. Military Deployment, Mobilization, or Unaccompanied Tour

- Neither parent is a military service member.
- Mother  Father is a military service member.

Section VI. Statutory Requirement to Notify Other Parent of Address Change

A. Mother and Father shall each notify the other parent of any address change in writing no less than 30 days before changing address by sending written notice to the other parent by certified mail – restricted delivery, return receipt requested, at that other parent’s last known address.

B. Mother and Father shall each notify the other parent of any plan to remove any child(ren) from the State of Kansas for more than 90 days by sending written notice to the other parent by certified mail – restricted delivery, return receipt requested, at that other parent’s last known address.

C. A parent is not required to give written notice of removal to the other parent under either (A) or (B) if the other parent has been convicted of a crime specified in Article 54 (crimes against persons), Article 55 (sex offenses), or Article 56 (crimes affecting family relationships and children) of Chapter 21 (Crimes and Punishments) of the Kansas Statutes Annotated to which the child(ren) was the victim.

Failure to notify the other parent of a change of address or removal of the child(ren) from the State of Kansas is an indirect civil contempt punishable as provided by law. In addition, the court may assess reasonable attorney fees and other expenses against the parent required to give notice.

Furthermore, a change of the residence or removal of the child(ren) may be considered a material change of circumstances which justifies modification of a prior order of legal custody, residency, child support or parenting time.
